(b) prohibit the listed entity from possessing, controlling or having access to property, whether owned or controlled, directly or indirectly by—

- (i) the Worker's Party of Korea; or
- (ii) an individual or entity owned or controlled by the Government of the DPRK or the Worker's Party of Korea, which are associated with the nuclear or ballistic missile programme of the DPRK.

(2) Subject to clause 5, an order under subclause (1) may—

- (a) be made subject to any other condition that the Court considers reasonable;
- (b) prohibit the listed entity from possessing or controlling cash or property in excess of an amount to be prescribed by the judge;
- (c) indicate the account held in a financial institution, into which any excess cash shall be placed; or
- (d) make such provision as is just in the circumstances to preserve the rights of any bona fide third-party acting in good faith.

(3) An order under subclause (1) shall not apply to property—

- (a) that is required to carry out activities of—
 - (i) a mission of the DPRK to the United Nations, its specialised agencies or related organizations; or
 - (ii) diplomatic and consular missions to the DPRK; or
- (b) that the Committee determines is required for—
 - (i) the delivery of humanitarian assistance;

- (ii) denuclearisation; or
 - (iii) any other purpose sanctioned by the Security Council.
- (4) Where an order is made under subclause (1), the Court—
 - (a) may serve the order upon the individual or entity; and
 - (b) shall immediately serve the order on the FIU in accordance with the Civil Proceedings Rules, 1998.
- (5) Where an order is served on an individual or entity under subclause (4), action shall immediately be taken to restrict the availability of the property, subject to the order, in accordance with the terms of the order.
- (6) Nothing in this clause shall prohibit the addition of interest or earnings due on an account frozen under subclause (1) or payments under contracts, agreements or obligations that arose prior to the making of an order under subclause (1) and any such payment shall be deposited into an account specified by the Court under subclause (2)(c).
- (7) Where an order is made under subclause (1), the Attorney General shall, within seven days after the date of the order, cause to be published in the Gazette and in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation in Trinidad and Tobago—
 - (a) a copy of the order; and
 - (b) a statement that the matter will be reviewed every six months.
- (8) The Attorney General shall, every six months—
 - (a) review all orders made under subclause (1) so as to determine whether the circumstances referred to in subclause (1) continue to exist in respect of the listed entity; and
 - (b) if he determines that such circumstances no longer exist, apply to a judge to set aside the order in respect of the listed entity.
- (9) Nothing in this clause shall preclude the Attorney General at any time from—
 - (a) conducting a review of the circumstances relative to an order made under subclause (1) to determine whether the circumstances referred to in subclause (1) continue to exist in respect of the listed entity; or

- (b) applying to a judge for the variation of the order or to set aside the order in respect of the listed entity if he determines that such circumstances no longer exist or for the purposes under section 5(2).

(10) The Attorney General may, at any time after the making of an order under this clause, apply to the Court for a variation of the order.

5. (1) The Court may, at any time, vary an order made under clause 4. Varying an order

- (2) The Court may, in varying an Order—
 - (a) make provision for meeting out of the property, reasonable living expenses, including but not limited to—
 - (i) mortgage or rent payments;
 - (ii) allowances for food, medicine and medical treatment;
 - (iii) payments due as a result of an order of the Court;
 - (iv) provision for the reasonable living expenses of dependents including educational expenses; and
 - (v) provision for taxes, insurance premiums and public utilities;
 - (b) make provision for reasonable legal expenses, including expenses incurred in defending a criminal charge or any proceedings connected thereto and any proceedings under this Act;
 - (c) make provision for expenses necessary to enable a person to carry on any trade, business, profession or occupation;
 - (d) make provision for fees or service charges for routine holding or maintenance of frozen funds or other financial assets or property;
 - (e) make provision for meeting out of the property, such sums as are necessary for the satisfaction of any judicial, administrative or arbitral lien or judgment, provided that the lien or judgment was entered prior to 14th October 2006, and is not for the benefit of any other listed entity subject to prior notification to the Committee;
 - (f) [make provision for the individual or entity making any payment due under a contract provided that the Court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the contract was entered into prior to 14th October 2006;

- (ii) the contract is not related to any item, materials, goods, technologies, assistance, investment, brokering or service prohibited under UNSCR 1718(2006), 1874(2009), 2087(2013), 2094(2013), 2270(2016) and its successor resolutions by the Security Council; and
- (iii) the payment will not be directly or indirectly received by any individual or entity other than the listed entity;] and
- (g) make the individual or entity subject to any other condition that the Court considers reasonable.

(3) Where an order under clause 4 has been made in respect of a listed entity, the Attorney General shall not apply to the Court for a variation of the order in accordance with subclause (2)(a), (b) and (d), unless he has first notified the Committee of his intention to apply to the Court for such an order and the Committee has not indicated its objection to such an application to the Court within five days of the notification.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, where after an order has been made under clause 4, and the Committee has raised no objection to or has granted its consent for the variation of the order, the Attorney General may apply to the Court in accordance with subclause (1), for a variation of the order.

Application for review by an affected person

6. (1) A person affected or likely to be affected by an order made under clause 4 may at any time after the publication of the order, apply to a judge for a review of the order.

(2) An application for review under subclause (1) shall not be made in respect of a claim for indemnity or compensation, a claim under a guarantee, extension or payment of a bond, a financial guarantee or indemnity where the claim is made by—

- (c) an individual or entity acting through or on behalf of an individual or entity referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(3) Where an application for review is made under subclause (1), the Attorney General shall be served with a copy of the application and given the opportunity to make representations to the Court in respect of any proceedings for the review of the order.

7. (1) Within sixty days after the date of publication of an order ^{Review of an order} under clause 4, the listed entity in respect of which the order is made may apply to a judge for a review of the order and shall notify the Attorney General of the application.

(2) Upon an application made under subclause (1), the judge may—

- (a) hear evidence that may be presented by the Attorney General and may, at the request of the Attorney General, hear all or part of that evidence or information in the absence of the applicant or an Attorney-at-law representing the applicant, if the judge is of the opinion that the disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
- (b) provide the applicant with a statement summarising the information available to the judge, so as to enable the applicant to be reasonably informed of the reasons for the making of the order, without disclosing any information, the disclosure of which, would in the opinion of the judge, be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
- (c) provide the applicant with a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
- (d) determine whether or not the order should be set aside on the basis of the information available to the judge and, if he determines that the order should be set aside, direct that the order to be set aside.

(3) Upon an application under subclause (1), the judge shall, if satisfied as to the matters referred to in that subclause, make an order to set aside the order, which shall be—

- (a) published in the Gazette and in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation in Trinidad and Tobago; and
- (b) served upon the FIU in accordance with the Civil Proceedings Rules, 1998.
